

TEN GALLONS OF ICE CREAM SENT TO WAIALEE BOYS

Seventy-five Pounds of Peanuts, as Well as Candy and Fruit for Christmas

Ten gallons of ice cream and 500 cornucopias were sent out to the Boys' Industrial School at Waialeale today as part of the supplies for the big Christmas celebration to be held at the school this evening. The members of the new Industrial schools committee, with the exception of Father Valentin, left Honolulu today to take part in the celebration.

A. F. Griffiths, president of Oahu College, will be in charge of the celebration, and one of the features of the entertainment will be an exhibition of Indian club swinging by Frank C. Atherton. A Filipino orchestra of seven pieces will furnish the music. Seventy-five pounds of peanuts, as well as candy, nuts, oranges and other fruit, will be distributed among the boys.

Each boy will receive an individual gift, practically all the gifts to be articles of clothing. Mrs. A. L. Andrews, who was in charge of the purchases, bought a large number of large silk handkerchiefs such as the Hawaiian and Oriental boys like to wear about the neck.

At 7:30 o'clock a big Christmas tree will be lighted, and a Santa Claus will then distribute the presents.

At noon today a gift for the boys consisting of 11 disc phonograph records and a package of needles was brought to the Star-Bulletin office by a donor who desires to remain anonymous. The present was sent out by train this afternoon.

FRIENDS OF FLAVIN START JOSH REPORT OF FAKE NUPTIALS

When Postoffice Inspector Thomas J. Flavin received half a dozen postal cards yesterday congratulating him, he wondered what he had done to deserve it. A little later he received marked copies of the San Francisco Chronicle, Bulletin, and Post, announcing that he had been married in Sausalito to Miss Ida Robinski of Liberty Lake, Wash.

"So that's the send-off they gave me," he remarked this morning. "My inspector friends in Frisco took me to the boat in a limousine, and told me they would give me a good send-off in the papers. This must have been it. If I've been married I don't know anything about it. I don't intend to be—and Robinski at that!"

Mr. Flavin added that the whole affair was a practical joke on the part of his San Francisco postoffice friends. "I suppose the Seattle papers will copy it," he mourned today. "It'll keep me busy for the next six months nailing the fake."

BOOK FIGURES TAKEN AS COST TO REPRODUCE

Rapid Transit Expert Testifies He Accepted Figures Furnished Him By Company

The cross examination by the territory today during the trial of its injunction suit against the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company of W. A. Cattell, civil engineer of San Francisco and expert on valuations, brought out the fact that the costs to the Rapid Transit, as shown by its books, were considered by Mr. Cattell as the true criterion of the reproduction costs of the physical units entering into the company's system.

These book figures of the company, Mr. Cattell testified, he took as a basis of the inventory which he made to establish the reproduction costs of the system at the present time. He further testified that he had considered his own experience in similar matters when taking the book figures into account. Counsel for the territory asked Mr. Cattell if he had made a detailed personal examination of such matters as poles, tie-plats, and similar paraphernalia which went to make up the company's plant.

Mr. Cattell answered that he had been given certain figures and computations by representatives of the Rapid Transit Company and had checked them up from his former experience and had adopted the figures so handed to him. Mr. Cattell was to be further cross examined by the territory.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A word from Henry Ford, now on the outskirts of the war zone and not likely to get in.

At a time when it seemed probable that Mr. Ford would visit Hawaii this winter, he was invited to time his trip to coincide with the Carnival. Now comes a reply from his secretary, G. S. Anderson, who writes with true secretarial caution:

"Mr. Ford is now on his way to Europe, and I am unable to say when he will return. However, I shall be glad to bring this to his attention just as soon as he gets back."

Mr. Ford's stationery gives the impression that he thinks he is well enough known to do without the elaborate letter heads affected by some businessmen. A plain sheet of heavy linen paper bears the simple engraved superscription Henry Ford, Dear Sir.

All departments of the Library of Hawaii will close at 5 p. m. on Friday, Dec. 24 (Christmas Eve).—Adv.

SPECIAL RATES BY WIRELESS FOR XMAS MESSAGES

Christmas greetings by wireless from here to the mainland is the novel feature which was announced today by Manager W. Y. Nolley of the Federal Telegraph Company.

Messages will be accepted at the local office down to 11 o'clock Friday night. A rate of 12 words for a dollar will be the charge to San Francisco and vicinity and to other California points the charge will be $1.40.

All messages sent under this arrangement, known as night letter service, will be delivered Christmas morning, on special holiday blanks bearing appropriate Christmas decorations conveying the spirit of the occasion.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A meeting of the territorial grand jury will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the judicial building.

From the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu comes a neat Christmas card wishing Honolulu businessmen and others a happy holiday season.

After being absent from his company for 11 days, R. S. Cosgrove, a private in Company L, 1st Infantry, yesterday gave himself up to the police and asked to be sent back. He said he did not have trainfare to take him to Schofield Barracks. Cosgrove will be turned over to the provost guard.

The annual meeting of the trustees of the Library of Hawaii will be held the third Tuesday in January, at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing fiscal year. The December meeting, scheduled for yesterday, was postponed because of the lack of a quorum.

Slight injuries were sustained by Detective Apana, Chinese, when he leaped out from a street car on which he was riding on the running board, and was struck by a telegraph pole. He was treated by Dr. Ayer, emergency hospital surgeon, and will be out in a few days.

DINNER, SPORTS AND CONCERT JARRETT'S PLANS FOR PRISON

Arrangements to make Christmas in Oahu prison a day of fun for the inmates are being perfected by High Sheriff William P. Jarrett and his assistants, and an elaborate entertainment is to be offered. In line with Jarrett's attempt to handle the men more with kindness than force, a great deal of liberty will be allowed.

Christmas night there will be a tree on which will be hung presents for all the prisoners. Christmas dinner, with the usual edibles of the season will be served, and in the afternoon there will be some sports.

A musical program, with vaudeville stunts, is being planned for Christmas night. Talent will be selected from those in the institution.

PLAN NEW YEAR'S EVE CONCERT FOR SAILORS

A New Year's Eve concert and social evening for all sailors in port at that time will cheer the holiday stay of mariners in Honolulu, Superintendent C. F. Mant of the Seamen's Institute announced today.

A committee of women workers for the institute is now arranging the program, which will include songs, readings, instrumental music, and other features, followed by refreshments.

The program will be held on New Year's Eve, December 31, at 7:30 in the evening, and all sailors then in the port of Honolulu will be welcome.

PUUNUI PEOPLE NOT TO QUIBBLE ABOUT DETAILS

Have Cheery Meeting With Supervisors, and Both Sides Smile at Finish

There was more discussion on the Puunui project last night. More than a dozen of the good-natured Puunuiites came down from valley, hill and plain, and met again with the supervisors. They were greeted with a smile of welcome by the supervisors, a smile which did not vanish during the meeting, and when the discussion had come to a close and the delegation was tip-toeing from the assembly room, Supervisor Larsen blew a whiff of blue smoke toward the ceiling and called good naturedly, "Come again, Puunui, we like to talk to people like you."

Puunui has the promise from the supervisors of early and earnest action. The supervisors have the promise from Puunui that so long as that action means good to their district and to Honolulu the Puunui people will not linger over details. There will be still more consideration to the project at the next meeting.

Two general plans for an outlet to the district were given consideration last night. Both plans provide for a road starting in practically the same place close up to the mountain side at the boundary of the Country Club grounds, but one of the plans puts a road through to Nuuanu avenue to join on with Lunalui road, and the other plan a road which will enter Nuuanu avenue approximately 90 feet nearer town. The former plan is proposed by the Puunui Improvement Club, while the other was proposed by the Outdoor Circle.

Fear Sherman May Fight.

Belief that the club plan will be fought hard by George Sherman, who owns a magnificent residence and large grounds through which the road would cut, led several of the supervisors to favor the project advanced by the Outdoor Circle at the time the circle was taking an active part in trying to put good roads through Arnold, acting chairman of the road committee, is especially sure that much opposition will be found, while Hollinger advocated the idea of trying first to see if an amicable agreement can be reached.

J. F. G. Stokes, speaking for the Puunui Improvement Club, said that he did not particularly disapprove of the road which enters Nuuanu nearer town, but that he believed the other road was better, looking toward the building of the city in a far sighted way. However, he favored action rather than anything which would hold up improvements.

Some interesting notes of an interview with E. W. Sutton, now president of the Country Club, had with ladies of the Outdoor Circle when this organization was trying to put through its road were read by Supervisor Arnold. The notes showed much opposition to the road, and caused Supervisor Hollinger to declare that they did not sound public spirited.

Tells of Many Delays.

Stokes reviewed the uphill fight that the Outdoor Circle had had with the Country Club, and told of delay after delay that had seemingly been made to stop the project.

"Sutton finally killed the project," said Stokes, "and has been made president of the club for his excellent work."

Arnold questioned the Puunui residents as to the value at which land is assessed in the district, arriving at the conclusion that the Country Club is paying on an assessed value of $50,000 for land which should be assessed at $360,000 at least. Stokes explained that the rate is low because the grounds are for recreation purposes.

At the close of the discussion Supervisor Arnold moved that the road committee and the engineer be instructed to proceed immediately on a report concerning the project, and bring in their results to the board at its next meeting. The motion carried unanimously.

MEMO'S OF MEETING OF CITY SUPERVISORS

The next meeting of the board will be one week from tonight, when labor and regular payrolls will be voted.

Reading and discussion of the Beretania improvement resolution was again postponed last night. It will be taken up at the next meeting.

W. F. Armstrong, secretary of the Oahu prison executive committee, sent a note to the mayor and supervisors thanking them on behalf of the inmates of the prison for the band concert held there on December 19.

Mayor Lane's appointment of Frank Antone as janitor at the Waikiki school was approved by the board. No figure was fixed for salary as considerable discussion arose over the need of a regular salary schedule and the matter was postponed to be taken up at next meeting. Supervisor Arnold says that the janitor at Ewa who gets only $25 works about twice as hard as will the Waikiki janitor whom Hollinger wished to appoint at $35 a month.

School Superintendent H. W. Kinney sent a statement to the board last night showing expenditures likely to be needed in building and repair work during the coming year. The list is tentative and is as follows: January 1 to June 30, 1916, high school, $3500; Kahuku, $600; Kawaihoa, $600; Manoa, $1200; Ewa cottage, $1000; total $6900. June 30 to January 1, 1917, Waiialua, $1200; Ewa, $1200; Honolulu district, $2800; Central Grammar, $35,200; total $42,100.

Say, Did You Notice It

Henry Ford may not win that settlement of a difference of opinion over in Europe, but, figure out the value of the advertisement he is getting and will get—front page—top of column, and dead-headed, too—Wow, but that's some ad. Why, we can't get on the front page of this paper with a search warrant or a crow-bar. Oh, well, this page is just as good, anyway, and I just want enough of your time to tell you that you only have two more days now before Christmas to get that suit or raincoat and open up that charge account, so hasten thee and moveth with much speed, says Willie, the office boy, with
